

TECHNO-ECONOMIC PREFEASIBILITY STUDY FOR PORT OPERATOR BIDDERS

Client:

Elixir Group

Country:

Serbia

Duration:

October to December 2013

Services:

Preparation of technical documentation

Project objectives

The Port of Prahovo which is located on the Danube close to the Bulgarian border in Serbia shall be privatized, modernized and extended. The Serbian affiliate of iC was entrusted with consultancy services to assess the technical and economic status of the facilities and the operations of the port and prepare the bidding documentation for the prospective port operator.

Project description

Elaboration of the plan and programme of the port activities, rehabilitation and modernization plan of the port infrastructure and suprastructure, along with the economic feasibility study of the planned development, activities and investments, needed for the bidding procedures for the award of the port operating authorization.

Project data

Inland waterway port located on km 861 of the Danube River.

Project specifics

- Port operating authorization awarded for 25 years,
- Target throughput of 3 million tons/year,
- Deployment of investments of 1.5 million EUR.

Services

- Analysis of port infrastructure and suprastructure, including transshipment equipment with the plan for development and revitalization of the port of Prahovo.
- Cargo forecasts and capacity analysis. Economic analysis of investments in public and private sector.

